

THE BLACK CANADIAN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

February 2009.

www.bcsf.ca

COMMUNIQUÉ

Thursday, February 5, 2009

NEWS:

The Black Canadian Scholarship Fund has put together a pool of black professionals who are willing to make free presentations on demand at various schools and community centres during the month of February to celebrate the Black History Month.

BILINGUAL :

1. Mr John Harewood (Former University professor)
2. M. Ted Guillaume. (FSL Teacher, retired)

ANGLOPHONE :

1. Janice Anderson (Musicologist)
2. Thomas Barber (Grandson of the first Black family in Ottawa)
3. Mr. Patrick Martin (Civil servant)

FRANCOPHONE :

1. M. Yves Antoine (Poete, écrivain, et enseignant au niveau collégial et universitaire)

BACKGROUNDER:

The Black Canadian Scholarship Fund (BCSF) was established in 1996 by Dr. Horace Alexis and some other black professionals. The BCSF is dedicated to enhancing the educational future of our young people, supporting the leaders of tomorrow and ensuring community development. The BCSF was established to provide opportunities and encourage academic excellence for qualified black students in their chosen fields of study.

CONTACT PERSONS:

Mr. Michel Décoste
decostemg@gmail.com
613.837.2842 (before Feb 11)

Dr. Horace Alexis
bambamhead@gmail.com
613.224.4457